

Who's Travis?

One frightening evening, two twins called Gabby and Mia were watching tv and they got really fed up so Gabby and Mia went outside but it was pouring with rain and in the background they could see thunder and lightning approaching them, also they didn't notice a man called Travis who was looking at them mysteriously like he wanted to take them and ... he did.

Gabby and Mia had been taken and all they wanted was their mum. Mia and Gabby found themselves in an old tent, scared, worried and confused but luckily Mia had a trick up her sleeve, Mia whispered to Gabby and said "you see how he has a spoon in his hand, one of us can say that we are hungry and he might open the tent then we can escape". So, they gave it a try but... he didn't fall for it so Mia was screaming at the top of her lungs and Travis got very annoyed so he came and opened the tent so Gabby pushed him and ran off with Mia.

Gabby and Mia finally escaped so they tried to find their house but they couldn't but they only found...TRAVIS AGAIN! Mia was panicking, and so was Gabby. They both ran like headless chickens but luckily, they didn't get caught so they kept on running. Mia and Gabby did not know where they were running to but all they knew is that they needed to run away from this man.

The girls finally found a small house on an empty road, the house was small and pretty, a house made for a princess. The house had pink curtains on the windows, a white door with white stones approaching it, and white fencing surrounding the small house. As Mia and Gabby came to the white door, they could smell something sweet, sweet like chocolate cookies so they decided to go in.

The twins went inside and Mia said to Gabby “This looks like a safe place to hide until morning”. “Yes, I agree” said Gabby. So as the twins looked around the pretty house, they heard multiple yelps and barks and with a confused face the twins both looked at each other wondering what on earth was making those noises, so Gabby led the way in the direction of the noises then behind a door was a dog and her puppies.

The biggest smile came on both Gabby and Mia’s faces as they kneeled down to stroke and cuddle the puppies and their mum, “1,2,3,4,5,6,7 PUPPIES!” yelled Mia excitedly. “Oh, we must take them home with us today, I can’t see an owner” said Gabby. “Poor doggy’s you must be so hungry” Mia said.

Suddenly the girls heard the front door open and close... Somebody was downstairs, but who? Gabby and Mia both looked at each other with fear and covered each other's mouths with each other’s hand but somebody was coming up the stairs, the door swung open and it was TRAVIS.
