

The magical place that takes you to different places

One bright ,wispy day, I Max woke up with a thought that on the way to school I would have wondered into this magical place with my friend .So that morning ,when I was on the way to school, I heard footsteps approaching and seeing a ghostly stooped figure, but the figure was disguised in the shadows of the bushes nearby . The person, unidentified, I took from my galaxy bag, my torch and flashed it at the shadowy figure, realising it was Clyde.

After Clyde questioned me," How did you know I was there?" I replied proudly saying, "Because I can tolerate your silly pranking."

On the way to school Clyde told me, "I know a shortcut." I responded, " Lead the way." Time passing from the walk Clyde told me then that he didn't know what he did wrong, but we were lost. I thought of an idea to go inside the unknown place which was near the bus stop and we rushed into the building. Unsurprisingly, we were teleported to this terrifying world it was so life-threatening, the greenery trees of the dimension were cloaked in mist; and the dark clouds. Me and Clyde then went back through a blue portal in front of us. Clyde asked if we could go back into the place to see if you could go somewhere else adventurous. I told him," Yes but if it will waste us some time, we have to rush back to get back in time for school." We both stepped inside of the teleporting building that then took us to a lovely place which seemed absurd to me. The sun blazed from the vivid blue sky; the clouds were drifting across the sky, so Clyde asked if we could stay a bit longer. I replied "Yes but only for a little bit" as Clyde's joyous shout echoed across the hills. We explored the wonderful place; we saw a blazing carpet of beaming bluebells and trees bursting with blossom and melodic singing of the birds. We decided to call the song they sang 'the dancing of the birds'. Clyde peered through the thorn bushes after we heard a heart pound, we saw widening eyes and uncontrollable breath just like a dog. Clyde asked with innocent eyes at me that if he can keep the unowned dog with us. I replied" yes, "because in my point it was the cutest dog ever. With a silent cheer he asked, "What shall we call the dog for now?" I thoughtfully told him, "How about Lucy?" Clyde complimented, "That is a wonderful, so her name is Lucy." I said, "Come let's go to the mall over there. "So, we marched towards the mall. When we got there it, there was a mouth-slobbering chocolate fountain pouring like the waterfall called Gaping Gill. Clyde woke up from his, then decided to entered a clothing shop called 'Style' as a miracle happened that they were on in time for school for maths feeling gleeful.

By: Abeeshan

Year:4 Zephaniah

Age-09

Monks Orchard Primary School