

The 'Deep Sleep Dream'

One night mum put me to bed and I had an interesting dream about fairy's, cupcakes and all sorts of things, but suddenly I was woken out of my deep sleep and I heard a leap, a jump and a crack and I was terrified.

I sneakily tip toed down the stairs and looked from the banister where I saw a twinkle of light from the kitchen but I still didn't know who it was!

I went down a few more steps but there was nothing there so I turned around and went back up the stairs. When I got to the top I saw butterfly wings shining in the dark. The wings were blue, purple and pink which were my favourite colours.

I walked back into my bedroom and saw my dressing table full of cupcakes and cookies for me to eat but I didn't eat them because I still wanted to know who was in the kitchen and who was in my bedroom?

I got back into my bed and i started to feel really hungry so i thought i would take just one bite of a cupcake but i ended up eating all of them because i was so hungry!

After eating my cupcakes and cookies I was laying on my back and I looked up and saw a beautiful fairy sprinkling magical dust over my head and I loved it.

Before i knew it i turned into a fairy too! I went to the House of Fairy's and they dressed me up like a fairy and i was amazed at how i looked.

I told the fairy that i have never looked like this before and I asked her if she could make me look like this in real life...she whispered ...'YES' and i said 'THANK YOU'.

When the fairy said yes i felt so excited and i was thinking about what could happen next. I told myself i knew the fairy was real!

The fairy told me we are going to a ball full of nice fairy's but she told me i had to be back home by midnight or my mum would be wondering where i was.

I was having such a nice time at the ball and then suddenly it was 11.55pm, i was racing home and then...SMACK! I opened my eyes and i was on the floor in my bedroom, i can't believe it, it was all a dream!!!

Is this what a deep sleep dream is all about? I thought i was awake this whole time! I guess i had a wonderful deep sleep dreaming about things i love.

BEEP...BEEP...BEEP... that's my alarm, time to get ready for school. My mum called me and said 'breakfast time!', YUM YUM! I yelled 'what's for breakfast mum?'

"PANCAKES! only this once." I yelled back "you don't have to if you don't want to mum." She replied "Its fine i will make it for you."

"YES! I knew you would!"
