

Dear Soon-to-be Year 5!

I hope that you and your families are well and keeping safe during this time away from school.

I have some news that I am hoping you will be as happy as I am: when you return to school in September, I will be your class teacher and I can't wait!

I already know many of you, as you will know me, since we spent lots of time together during Year 3 and I am looking forward to seeing how much you have all grown and matured since then.

Our new class name will be Rowling Class – like the author J.K. Rowling. We will be moving along the corridor to a new classroom. Our new classroom will be where Rauf Class currently is, which is a Year 6 class at the moment, but in September it will be ours and I have already begun preparing lots of things to make our room look special and ready for your return.

In addition to me, Miss Ffrench will also be teaching in Year 5 (her class will be called Walliams Class).

We are very lucky to have:

Mrs Turner

Mrs Denman

Mrs Wood

Mrs Grimwood

You will all know that I love reading and writing. I have been enjoying reading in the garden in this beautiful, sunny weather during my free time and have been keeping busy gardening too.

So, we will be spending lots of time reading a variety of books, participating in lots of drama and producing interesting pieces of writing, that is well punctuated. We will be continuing from your Year 4 maths learning and making sure that anything you have missed is covered in Year 5 before we move onto Year 5 work – so try not to worry!

Our first few weeks back will be spent finding out about our class author and writing a biography about her as well as getting to know each other again.

If you haven't yet, it would be a great idea for you to read some of her books whilst you are at home.

Until September, please continue to stay safe, try to complete your work on Google Classrooms and enjoy spending time with your families. If you would like to get in touch to say hi and let me know what you have been up to, you will be able to do so by messaging me on your Rosen Dojo account – you will receive more information about this soon.

Take care, Mrs Deveci
