Dear Year 2 Parents & Carers,

I am sorry that our transition from key stage 1 to key stage 2 is slightly more complicated this year.

When we looked at the make up of the classes in year two, we decided that we needed to re-balance them in terms of gender and ability. This is to ensure that all children receive the best provision that they can.

The children are used to being together as a year group already and with the government's guidance they will all remain in the same bubble.

You will be texted (on Thursday 9th July am) to tell you which class your child will be in next year and who their new teacher will be. We have made these decisions based on the teachers' knowledge of the children and we believe that the classes will work better in these groupings.

Your new class teachers have produced a welcome video that can be seen by clicking on the link sent to you, or going to our website from 10.30am on Thursday 9th July.

The children will return to school, as per the governments guidelines, on Monday the 7th September.

As things stand at the moment we will have a staggered entry to school and from school. More information and a timetable will be sent out next week. So assuming that nothing changes between now and then, we will go ahead with our plans for reopening the school.

We are really looking forward to welcoming back our new year 3 classes.

Thanks you for your patience and continued support.

Regards,
